2. Hardware stores and stores dealing in raw materials for construction are permitted to open on need-basis only. Applicants who have received permission for in-situ construction (both government and private) may apply to this office on requirement for opening of hardware stores as and when required at the construction site. Proprietors may apply if there is pressing demand from customers.
3. With reference to point 10 of the order of Home (Political) Department mentioned above, the following non-essential shops are also permitted to open on need-basis only and in a regulated manner. Applicants may apply to the concerned Incident Commanders or through the Local Headmen/CCMTs concerned and days for opening will be decided by the Incident Commander purely on need-basis:-
- i. Shops dealing in gas appliances and gas repairing.
 - ii. Shops that sell, repair and service mobile phones and essential electronic items, and mobile phone recharging centres.
 - iii. Computer Store and peripherals.
 - iv. Automobile workshop and auto spare part shops.
 - v. Furniture workshops.
 - vi. Stationery and Xerox shops.

- vii. Optical Store.
- viii. Shops selling baby clothes

Conditions:

1. The Incident Commanders in consultation with the respective Headmen (Rangbah Shnong) and CCMTs of the respective zones will regulate opening of essential and non-essential shops in such a way as to ensure no crowding or congestion in and around the shop or market area.
2. The Headmen, Market Committee and CCMTs will be responsible for ensuring absolute adherence to protocols.
3. Everyone should wear double-masks (3-ply plus cloth mask) or N-95 mask without fail.
4. Social distancing of at least 2 metre should be strictly maintained by all.
5. People are not permitted to loiter in the market area without any valid reasons.
6. Anyone found violating protocols will be liable for shop-closure or fined.
7. There shall be no overcrowding in one area/shop and people should spend minimum time in the shop/market area.
8. Anyone found moving and roaming around without essential reasons is liable to be punished as per law.

Adequate stock is available and is being closely monitored by this office. Essential stores will continue to open on a regulated fashion notwithstanding any containment/lockdown order. Hence, there is no need to panic or rush to the markets.
