

No.PER.43/98/11
Government of Meghalaya
Personnel & A.R.(A) Department

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Dated Shillong, the 11th April, 003

The undersigned is directed to say that there have been many instances where the Govt. in Personnel & A.R. (A) Department has been approached for advice/views/approval in the matter of condonation of the shortfall period of qualifying service in respect of Officers to be eligible for consideration for promotion to the next higher level. It is noticed that in some cases, proposals have been submitted without proper examination of the merit of the case.

It has therefore, been decided that such relaxation will be entertained only in deserving cases for meeting the administrative exigencies. With a view to facilitate quick disposal of such cases, all Departments are advised to examine and scrutinise such cases properly and indicate the administrative exigency/compulsion involved, before obtaining the views/comments/approval of this Department.

It may also please be noted that "qualifying service" for determining the length of service in the lower post to be eligible for consideration for promotion to the next higher post, should be calculated as on the first day of that year in which the selection is made where Service Rules has not been finalised. However in the Departments where Service Rules had been finalised, the calculation should be made as per provision laid down therein.

This Supersedes this Department's O.M. No.PER.43/98/1, dated 25.1.99 and O.M. No.,PER.43/98/10, dated 13.11.2000.
