Final photo electoral rolls prepared, handed over to political parties

Shillong, January 17th, 2019 : The final photo electoral rolls for 53-Ampati (ST), 54-Mahendraganj (ST) and 55-Salmanpara (ST) Assembly constituencies have been prepared in accordance with the Registration of Electors Rule, 1960 with 01.01.2019 as the qualifying date.

The electoral rolls are available for inspection at the offices of the District Election Officer and Block Development Officers, South West Garo Hills and also Booth Level Officers (BLOs) in the respective polling stations.

Meanwhile the hard and soft copies of final photo electoral rolls were handed over to the representatives of the recognised political parties at a meeting held at the DRDA conference hall on Thursday. The meeting was chaired by ADC (Election) & ERO, Ampati, S.K. Marak in the presence of ADC, Ampati S.C.Laloo, BDOs and AEROs, other district officials and the election staff.

The ADC(Election) informed the representatives of political parties that the BLOs would hand over the EPICs to all the newly registered voters during the celebration of National Voter's Day on 25th January, 2019 in their respective polling stations.

It may be mentioned that there was an overall increase of 2163 voters in the final publication of photo electoral rolls for the three Assembly constituencies in the district, out of which 1855 were fresh enrolment of voters in the age group of 18-19 years. The total number of electors in the draft publication was 86,616 which increased to 88,779 in the final publication.
