LEGAL AWARENESS PROGRAMME AND HEALTH CAMP HELD IN WEST JAINTIA HILLS

Amlarem 28th September 2019: The District Legal Services Authority West Jaintia Hills District, Jowai held a one day legal awareness programme on NALSA (Protection and Enforcement of Tribal Rights) scheme 2015, on the 26th of September 2019 at Muktapur Village, West Jaintia Hills District.

Shri. E. Kharumnuid, MHJS District and Sessions Judge and chairperson of the District Legal Services Authority, West Jaintia Hills Jowai while highlighting the purpose of the programme said that the legal service was introduced by the National Legal Services to look into the rights of the people living in remote areas. He further added that it is important for every person to know about the rights pertaining to their education and health.

A health camp was also organised on the same day in which the concerned government department administered free health check-ups to more than 1000 people from the area covering beneficiaries from 23 villages in total.

Other Government departments which took part in the programme were the office of the District Medical and Health Officer, West Jaintia Hills District, office of the District Social Welfare Officer, West Jaintia Hills District, office of the District Child Protection Officer, West Jaintia Hills District and the office of the District Programme Officer (ICDS) West Jaintia Hills.
